TITLE: Display of Political Literature or Solicitations
EFFECTIVE DATE:	May 12, 2011
LAST REVISION:	October 16, 2014	Policy No. 5.595

Policy Statement

Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for the display of political literature, campaign placards, advertising signs, non-academic posters and flyers on campus.

Scope

This policy applies to students, faculty, staff, and off-campus community at large.

Policy

The policy of BRCC is to ensure that BRCC reserves the right to accept or reject any advertising copy, which it deems, in its sole discretion, create a lawless disorder on the College's premises or a material disruption to College activities; constitutes an invasion of privacy interests; or is libelous, false, or obscene.

Procedure

Literature submitted may not be displayed on educational buildings, trees, sidewalks, handrails or grounds, but must be limited to those areas deemed necessary for posting approved material. Such documents will be regulated and supervised by the SPAR Office. Any such violation of the policy BRCC reserves the right to remove, discard, and/or destroy literature.
