Code of Conduct & Adjudication Process

Introduction
Baton Rouge Community College (BRCC) is a community of individuals engaged in the task of learning and the advancement of knowledge. Acceptance of admission to the College carries with it an obligation to the welfare of the community. Freedom to learn can be preserved only through respect for the rights of others, for the free expression of ideas, and for the law.

All individuals and/or groups of the College community are expected to speak and act with scrupulous respect for the human dignity of others, both within and outside it, as well as at social and recreation activities.

BRCC will not tolerate any form of harassment, intimidation or bullying, including but not limited to sexual, racial, religious, age, or other forms of discrimination. Nor will it tolerate acts of hazing against individuals or groups solely because they express different points of view. The College encourages the free exchange of ideas and opinions but insists that the free expression of views be made with respect for human dignity and freedom of others.

By accepting admission to BRCC, a student accepts responsibility to conform to all regulations that the College established. Any student who fails to meet this responsibility shall be subject to disciplinary sanction, including, but not limited to, the imposition of reasonable fines, warning, probation, suspension, or expulsion.

The Student Code of Conduct (the “Code”) is made available to students via the College website and in the Student Handbook. Students are responsible for becoming familiar with such regulations and are held accountable for misconduct, even in the absence of their awareness or familiarity with those regulations. Students are expected to read and to adhere to all pertinent materials so that they may make informed choices about their actions. Ignorance of policies and procedures are not acceptable excuses for violating them.

The College reserves the right to modify this Code from time to time when, in its discretion, such action will serve the best interests of the College or its students. The provisions of the Code shall not be construed to replace or supersede any state, federal or local laws that also may apply to students or others.

Purpose of the Student Code of Conduct
The Student Code of Conduct (the “Code”) is intended to provide the framework for an orderly and stable environment. The Code obligates students to, both within the classroom and outside it, respect the rights and privileges and property of other members of the College community and visitors to the campus. Students are expected to refrain from actions which would interfere with College functions or endanger the health, welfare or safety of other persons, practice high standards of academic and professional honesty and integrity, and comply with the rules and regulations of the College and its departments.
In general, the Code sets forth duties owed by students to each other and to the College. It also sets forth administrative procedures whereby students accused of violating College rules are afforded due process and, if the preponderance of evidence warrants, receive fair discipline. Finally, this Code specifies procedures by which a student may exercise the appeal process for certain decisions.

Jurisdiction
The Code will apply to and govern all conduct, henceforth referred to as “Prohibited,” which: (1) occurs on College property; (2) occurs at a College sponsored, sanctioned or supervised class, activity, contest, conference, meeting or other function regardless of location and is inclusive of travel, lodging and unscheduled time in between; or (3) in any manner, on or off campus, is associated with the College or is otherwise deemed to affect the operation of the College. A student who engages in Prohibited Conduct that is prohibited by this Code shall be subject to discipline.

This Code, as well as other College rules and regulations governing student conduct, shall apply to the Prohibited Conduct of all individuals who are matriculated or otherwise enrolled to attend class full or part-time at BRCC. A student withdrawal does not negate a conduct hearing or conduct sanctions being imposed.

Right to Restrict Non-Members of the College Community
The College reserves the right to restrict or prohibit the presence of a person who is not a member of the College Community from being on College property or attending College events whenever that individual’s presence is considered detrimental to the welfare of the College.

Expectations of Students
Students are expected to:

1. Be accountable for information contained in the College Catalog, Student Handbook, The Student Code of Conduct and any other published regulations relating to student responsibilities.
2. Be respectful of the rights of others.
3. Comply with the verbal and written directions of College officials and public authority.
4. Respect and comply with all the laws and rights of good citizenship.
5. Respect the freedom to teach and the freedom to learn.
6. In all academic settings including, science and technical labs, student dress is required to meet all safety codes/standards.
7. Personal telephone and mail service are not available to students. Students should never use the college address as a home or mailing address.
8. Students who have an emergency that involves critical illness or the death of a family member should call the BRCC main phone line, (225) 216-8000. The Office of Public Safety should be contacted for on-campus emergencies by dialing (225) 216-8888 (6-8888 from a campus line). Students can utilize the red emergency phones to alert appropriate college personnel for emergency purposes. They are located in strategic areas around campus.
9. Assistance animals are allowed in the academic class room with prior approval.
10. All electronic devices should be turned off and placed securely in belongings, along with any other personal materials before and during classes.

Student Rights

BRCC students have the following rights:

1. The right to be heard in matters that affect their rights and responsibilities.
2. The right to expect a quality education.
3. The right to develop their potential to the best of their ability.
4. The right to examine and discuss issues of importance, legally support popular/unpopular causes in an orderly manner, and recommend improvements in policies, regulations, and procedures affecting the welfare of students. It is critical that students understand they do not have the right to disrupt College operations or interfere with the rights of others. Students are encouraged to exercise this right through the use of appropriate channels provided by the SGA and campus officials. To obtain a permit for holding a peaceful demonstration, a student (or group of students) must first complete a Free Expression Area Application and submit it to Student Program and Resources at least 72 hours prior to the event to use the Free Expression Area.
5. The right to a fair hearing and appeal when disciplinary action is applied to them as an individual or a member of a group.
6. The right to “freedom of the press” in student publications and communications. Individual students and student clubs/organizations have the right to publish, distribute, and broadcast items to the college community, provided that the materials are identified with the name of the student and/or club or organization. All publications/broadcasts should adhere to the canons of responsible journalism, including avoidance of defamation, indecency/obscenity, undocumented allegations, plagiarism, and harassment. All publications must be approved by the SPAR office prior to distribution.
7. The right to form and participate in student clubs/organizations that provide educational and social enrichment. Student clubs/organizations duly registered with SPAR are allowed to meet in rooms and spaces located on the BRCC campus, provided that reservations are made prior to each meeting and the meeting proceeds in accordance with established rules and regulations. Students, clubs/organizations, or student groups may not make room/space reservations at BRCC in their names for use by outside groups/organizations.
8. Student clubs/organizations registered with SPAR have the right to invite a speaker to their meeting at the College. If there is clear evidence that the event could disrupt the orderly operation of the College, the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs and/or designee has the right to cancel a speaker’s invitation. The sponsoring organization will be notified of any such cancellation at the earliest possible time.
9. The right to confidentiality with regard to their student academic records, as subject to existing law. Official records kept at BRCC do not indicate political affiliations, activities, or beliefs and are not available to unauthorized persons within or outside the institution without the express written, legal consent of the student involved.
10. The right to due process when accused of any violation(s) of the regulations of the BRCC Student Code of Conduct. Due process is based on Student Affairs Policies and administrative procedures. For violations resulting in suspension/expulsion, students have the right to:
   a) a notice, in writing, of any charges.
b) admit to the alleged violation, waive an appeal, and accept the College’s action(s).

c) admit to the alleged violation and request an appeal.

d) deny that the alleged violation occurred and request an appeal.

e) a fair hearing before an impartial committee.

f) appear in person, or not appear at an appeal with the assurance that failure to do so is not an admission of guilt.

g) select an advisor who may attend the appeal along with the student.

h) call witnesses and present evidence.

i) receive a list of witnesses who are to testify against the accused student.

j) confront and cross-examine witnesses and/or accusers.

k) request a copy of any records or tape recordings used during the course of an appeal if the offense involves possible suspension/expulsion.

l) appeal to the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs and/or designee; and if no resolution occurs, directly to the Chancellor of the College.

m) appeal to the Louisiana Community and Technical College System office in accordance with LCTCS Policy #2.004.

Prohibited Conduct

Baton Rouge Community College expects its students to be accountable for their conduct and to represent the College in a positive, responsible manner. Proceedings under this Student Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off-campus.

ADJUDICATION PROCESS

Philosophy

From the students/community members’ perspective, the adjudication process at Baton Rouge Community College (BRCC) is designed to provide a learning experience that encourages growth and personal understanding of one’s responsibilities and privileges within the College environment. From the College’s perspective, the goal of the adjudication process is to balance an understanding and knowledge of students/community members and their needs, with the needs of other students and the college community.

The aim of the college adjudication proceedings is to arrive at decisions that ensure that individuals assume full responsibility for their actions and that ensure the rights, freedom, and safety of all members of the college community.

Corrective and punitive actions by the college may be required when a student violates certain rules of conduct or if his or her actions may endanger the property or well-being of individuals or organizations. The college takes corrective actions so as to reorient students while protecting the college community.

The authority of the college to discipline students for violations of its regulations differs from the power of civil authority to deal with violations of criminal law. Adjudication proceedings in the college community are administrative rather than criminal in nature. The standard used in determining whether a violation occurred is “preponderance of information,” which means it appears “more probable than not” that the incident occurred as alleged.

Students/community members may be held independently accountable to both civil authority and to the college for acts that constitute violations of law and/or violations of college policies, regulations, or procedures. Disciplinary action will not be subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal charges involving the same incident have been dismissed, reduced, or are in process.

Adjudication Records
Any student records or files produced or acquired during adjudication process become the property of BRCC. They are maintained by the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs and are not available to persons other than the student, except as provided by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and Louisiana Open Records Law.

Campus Adjudication Process

The process, in brief, consists of (1) a reported incident; complaint, concern or alleged student misconduct (2) contact and notification of alleged involvement; (3) discussion between the accused student and BRCC staff (4) examination of all relevant information; (5) decision determining involvement; (6) determination of action needed, either an informal or formal resolution, as outlined below; and (7) application of sanctions, as appropriate.

1. Reported Incident/Complaint, Concern or Alleged Student Misconduct
   Any student, faculty or staff member may report an alleged violation of policy. The Baton Rouge Community College Incident Report Form, which is available on the College website is the most common method. Police Reports are also acceptable.

2. Contact and Notification
   The BRCC Conduct Officer, after reviewing an incident report form, may determine that a meeting is required. In this case, student(s) involved in the incident will be contacted to schedule a meeting. Failure to comply with a request for a meeting may be considered, in itself a violation of the Code.

3. Discussion/Informal Meeting
   Whenever possible, decisions will be made by the Conduct Officer having the closest jurisdiction to the student(s) involved and area of concern. The Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs has final determination pertaining to jurisdiction.
4. Examination of Information
During the hearing/discussion, the student should be aware of his/her rights in the adjudication process. Students are ensured the following:

   a. Written notice to the student regarding the nature of the alleged charges;
   b. The right to have the allegations settled informally.
   f. The right to a fair and timely hearing before Hearing Officer;
   c. The right to present witnesses on their behalf;
   d. The right to the assistance of any person of their choosing
   e. The right to appeal.

The Conduct Officer will ask the accused to provide a written statement and discuss his/her involvement in the incident in question. The intent of the discussion is to allow the Conduct Officer to gather enough information to make a decision as to the student’s involvement in the matter and the level of responsibility.

In most circumstances, enough relevant information is available to allow the Conduct Officer to render a fair decision. In the event that an incident is complex or involves other students, additional meetings may be necessary to gather sufficient information.

 The student will be allowed to bring an advisor, advocate or observer of his/her choice and expense. Such advisor may be an attorney. The advisor is limited to counseling the student. The advisor may not act as a representative of the student or speak on the student’s behalf, or be permitted to take an active role in either in investigation or hearing process. The student will be allowed to utilize the same advisor, advocate or observer throughout the entire process.

5. Decision
Decisions regarding incidents and/or involvement will be based on a preponderance of information available, even if the student involved chooses not to attend the hearing. Once all relevant information has been presented, the school official will render a decision regarding whether it is more probable than not that the student violated the Student Code of Conduct.

The Conduct Officer will notify the student of the decision or the course of action in writing within five (5) business days of the hearing/discussion. Any decisions or sanctions are in effect once the student is notified either in person or in writing.

6. Determination of Appropriate Resolution Process: Informal or Formal
When possible, incidents are resolved informally. In such cases, the student meets with a Conduct Officer and is provided an opportunity to respond to allegations before any conduct action is taken. The student waives any rights to an informal meeting by his/her failure to attend. In cases where the Conduct Officer determines that the student may be subject to other than an Informal Resolution agreement, a Formal Conduct Hearing will be scheduled and will proceed as described in the Resolution Process section below.

7. Application of Sanctions
If the student has admitted to or has been found guilty of violating college policies, the Conduct Officer will also determine which sanctions are appropriate for that behavior (see Code of Conduct Sanctions). Students are advised that violations are cumulative in nature.

The Conduct Officer may impose a wide range of sanctions that may be applied in cases where the student has been determined in violation of the Code or College policy. Sanctions may be assigned individually or in combination with other sanctions. Failure to comply with certain conditions, guidelines, or requirements may result in more severe disciplinary action.

Any record of prior conduct will be taken into consideration in determining sanctions. Sanctions are in effect from the time of notification, either in person or in writing. All college-imposed sanctions shall be confirmed in writing. An official document signed and witnessed by the student, Conduct Officer, and a witness.

Temporary Injunction

In certain situations, it may be necessary to issue a temporary injunction against an individual alleged to have violated one or more provisions of this Code, particularly when the Code violation involves a potentially dangerous or damaging situation. Pending resolution of alleged charges, the Conduct Officer may issue an order to the student prohibiting any future conduct specified in the order.

Issuance of a temporary injunction shall not be deemed an indication or ruling on the merits as to whether the student did or did not engage in conduct in violation of this Code. A temporary injunction may be issued in one of the following forms:

- Cease and Desist Order: The student is issued an official verbal warning and is ordered to refrain from provoking or participating in any incident involving further violation of the Code. A student may be issued a Cease and Desist order at the discretion of the Conduct Officer and may also receive a sanction at a subsequent Conduct meeting, whether informal or a formal Conduct Hearing.

- Interim Suspension: A student receiving an interim suspension will immediately be required to vacate College property and shall be restricted from all College activities. An interim suspension may be imposed if the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs or designee determines that the continued presence of the student presents a real or potential danger to himself or herself, any other person, to property or to the campus and/or college. An interim suspension shall remain in effect only until a conduct meeting can be held.

The College cannot guarantee that arrangements can be made for the continuance of academic study when an Interim Suspension is imposed. When reasonable, the College will make arrangements.

Resolution Process
Once an Incident Report is received, the Conduct Officer will determine the appropriate resolution process. Once the appropriate course of action has been determined, either an informal or formal resolution is obtained following the procedures below:

Informal Resolution
A meeting between a Conduct Officer and a student(s) or organization who has/have allegedly violated the Code of Conduct. The informal process is for students who have taken responsibility for their actions and are not disputing the facts of what occurred. Informal resolutions are mutually agreed upon decisions, and as such, are not appealable. If a mutual decision cannot be reached by the conclusion of the informal resolution, the case will transfer to the formal resolution process.

During the informal meeting, the student must be provided the following information:

- The alleged misconduct and the reasons for the College’s belief that the student engaged in the misconduct.
- The specific section(s) of the Code allegedly violated.

Based on the findings of an informal meeting, the Conduct Officer shall enter in writing one of the following orders:

- An order dismissing the conduct proceedings if it appears there has been no misconduct;
- An order imposing an informal resolution agreement between the student and the Conduct Officer;
- An order referring the matter to a Formal Conduct Hearing. This referral shall occur whenever it appears that other than a resolution agreement may be warranted. In such situations, the formal conduct process must be used.

Failure to comply and complete the informal resolution agreement will result in restrictions being placed on the student, such as a hold being placed on the student account, and/or possible escalation requiring a formal resolution.

Formal Resolution

The process allows the students (s) and/or organization the opportunity to respond to the concern to contest the information within the reports’ if applicable, and to appeal the outcome of the hearing under certain criteria.

Notice of Formal Conduct Hearing
In accordance with the principles of due process, the Conduct Officer will give written notice of the time, date and location of the Formal Conduct Hearing. The form will describe the alleged misconduct, the Code provisions allegedly violated, and the potential sanctions. The hearing notice, plus a copy of the Code, shall be provided to the student accused of misconduct no less than four (4) workdays prior to the hearing.
The notice will also inform the student that he or she has the option to waive the Formal Conduct Hearing and accept sanctions imposed from the Conduct Hearing Officer based on the file documentation.

Access to the Case File

If so, an appropriate disciplinary sanction will be imposed. A copy of a written decision rendered by the Conduct Hearing Officer shall be presented to the student within ten (10) days of the hearing.

Non Attendance
If the student does not attend the Formal Conduct Hearing, the Conduct Hearing Officer may proceed with the Hearing in the student’s absence and impose a sanction, probation, suspension, or expulsion if warranted by the evidence.
Student Waiver of the Formal Conduct Hearing

Whenever a student is faced with the prospect of being subjected to a Formal Conduct Hearing the student has the option to waive the hearing and accept sanctions for the misconduct, warranted by the evidence, by the Hearing Officer and committee. This option is available to a student at any time up to the actual commencement of a Formal Conduct Hearing.

An informal meeting with the Hearing Officer to review the notification of the Formal Conduct Hearing will be scheduled. During this meeting the student will be apprised of the alleged violations of the BRCC Code of Conduct, formal hearing date, time and location, sanctions being recommended by the Conduct Officer. The student will also be informed of his/her Rights and Responsibilities before, during and after the Formal Conduct Hearing.

If the student decides to waive his/her rights to the Formal Conduct Hearing, the student will be presented with the document entitled “Students Agreement” and will be allowed to sign it. The Conduct Officer will have ten (10) days from signature of the “Student Agreement” to adjudicate the case and give a copy of the formal conduct decision letter to the student.

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (“FERPA”), upon case resolution, the Hearing Officer may communicate his/her findings to College personnel. Additionally, the final results of a Formal Hearing involving a crime of violence may be released to appropriate persons, including any victim of the crime, including the name of the alleged perpetrator, the charge, and the sanction.

Requirement of Substantial Compliance
Technical errors made by the College or any employee or administrator thereof in the application of this Code that do not prejudice the student shall not be grounds for invalidating discipline that has been imposed.

DISCIPLINE AND HEARING RECORDS

A discipline record is maintained for each student in the Office of Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs or designee and contains information concerning that student’s disciplinary history. A taped and/or digitized record of the formal conduct hearing(s) may be made and, at the discretion of the College, may be transcribed. Any taped and/or digitized record of the hearing, documentary evidence or other exhibits, case records, and other information pertinent to the hearing, with the exception of bulky exhibits, will become the property of the College and will be maintained as part of the student’s discipline record. The digital record is to provide a record of the disciplinary proceedings by the BRCC Conduct Hearing Officers. At no time will a digital recording become part of a students’ permanent College record unless it is related to a case involving sexual misconduct. No digital recording will be released, reproduced, or removed from the office except in compliance with a valid subpoena, court order, or the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended. Upon request, the student will be permitted to listen to any digital recording produced during the disciplinary process in the office in which it is maintained. All digital recordings remain the property of the College and will remain confidential until destroyed. The digital record will be destroyed in accordance with the BRCC records retention procedures. The record is maintained for at least five (5) years or so long as deemed necessary. Additional physical evidence in support of a particular case may also be maintained by the Campus Police Department under similar conditions as applied to the discipline record.

The right to examine a discipline record is limited to the affected student or individuals approved by the student or the Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs or designee(s) in accordance with limitations imposed by FERPA and College procedures.
